

State and transition model for PNW grasslands. Traditional management has been from pasture to bunchgrasses 1a. Does climate change increase the risk of transition to annual grassland 1b when disturbed. 2 - Does starting composition affect post-disturbance outcomes? Particularly at intermediate climate conditions? 3 - Can subsequent disturbance, with propagule modification promote recovery?